

Sew Precious In His Sight

Volume 18, Issue 2

April 2017

GOD ALWAYS HAS A PLAN

"You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it." John 14:14

Mission Statement: Our mission is to show parents the love of Christ, especially at a time when their personal pain is hard to endure, and let them know that God is faithful. Through acts of obedience and donations, His work can and will continue. We pray that this ministry will have an impact far beyond our expectations.

Our Purpose: Threads of Love is a sewing ministry meeting the needs of newborns and tiny premature infants.

As I write this, we are having thunderstorm warnings and even tornado warnings in Central California. We have prayed for rain, and we have had our share this year. Everything is green. Hard to believe it is nearing April and we are still having this weather, but it is so welcome.

*Happy 10
anniversary*

A NOTE FROM SISSY:

Attached is the updated order form for ordering labels. As you all know I have been in the process of moving, not finished just yet but at least I now have my computer up and running. Please save this form it has my new mailing address.

My email address has not change or the phone number for Threads of Love, just my mailing address. The only other thing that has change is the P. O, Box number which is 561 Walker, LA 70785. Please use my home address when ordering labels. IF you have my cell number or home number I ask that you not use it or give it out. Please use the 225-667-7714 number for all Threads of Love calls. The office hours are 9AM to 4PM CST M-F. If you need to get in touch with me before or after these hours just leave a message as soon as I pick up your message I will call you and not wait until it is office hours. I can also be reached by email if you have something that can't wait. I also use my phone to watch for emails from you guys when I am away from home.

Thanks for being patience while I have under taken this move. I pray my next move will be that the Lord calls me home or comes and takes me home.

CLC's Women in Ministry Brunch this morning! Fun, fellowship and a great opportunity to learn about Threads of Love ministry. Thank you Cathy Blankenship for sharing with us!

Not the one o'clock news...

In a mother's womb were two babies. One asked the other: "Do you believe in life after delivery?" The other replied, "Why, of course. There has to be something after delivery. Maybe we are here to prepare ourselves for what we will be later."

"Nonsense" said the first. "There is no life after delivery. What kind of life would that be?"

The second said, "I don't know, but there will be more light than here. Maybe we will walk with our legs and eat from our mouths. Maybe we will have other senses that we can't understand now."

The first replied, "That is absurd. Walking is impossible. And eating with our mouths? Ridiculous! The umbilical cord supplies nutrition and everything we need. But the umbilical cord is so short. Life after delivery is to be logically excluded."

The second insisted, "Well I think there is something and maybe it's different than it is here. Maybe we won't need this physical cord anymore."

The first replied, "Nonsense. And moreover if there is life, then why has no one ever come back from there? Delivery is the end of life, and in the after-delivery there is nothing but darkness and silence and oblivion. It takes us nowhere."

"Well, I don't know," said the second, "but certainly we will meet Mother and she will take care of us."

The first replied "Mother? You actually believe in Mother? That's laughable. If Mother exists then where is she now?"

The second said, "She is all around us. We are surrounded by her. We are of her. It is in her that we live. Without her this world would not and could not exist."

Said the first: "Well I don't see her, so it is only logical that she doesn't exist."

To which the second replied, "Sometimes, when you're in silence and you focus and you really listen, you can perceive her presence, and you can hear her loving voice, calling down from above."

Sent in by Cathy Blakenship

This could pass for a devotion. When we are in silence, and we really focus on God, we can perceive His presence and hear His loving voice.

We have been overly blessed with crocheted baby prayer shawls, ranging in sizes from 10 "x 10" to 24" x 24". They come in white, blue, pink, yellow & multi colors.

We were wondering if we could share these with one of our chapters. Possibly they could ask their hospital reps if they could use them?

I would appreciate hearing from anyone who could use these.

PICKLES

SO I PUT IT IN STORAGE AND FORGOT ABOUT IT.

THE REPAIR GUY LOOKED AT IT FOR A MINUTE AND FOUND OUT WHAT WAS WRONG.

SO IT WORKS NOW?

OH, I HAVE NO IDEA. I'LL LET YOU KNOW IF I EVER GET AROUND TO BUYING A NEW NEEDLE.

It may seem far away, but trust me, it comes up fast, and you won't want to miss it.

Don't do what "Miss Pickles" did. Start planning soon.

Dear Threads of Love Chapter Leaders & Members,

It is hard to believe it has been almost a year since our last conference. But it has and we are already working on the one for 2018. We have a tentative date of April 18- 20, 2018. This date is subject to change, I should know for sure by January. Please let all your chapter members know so they can Save-the-Date. Advance notice can make all the difference in who can attend. So get the word out to all your members.

As we have begun work on the 2018 Conference we have decided to make a few changes. These changes involve your help with a couple of things. We are going to limit the number of favors we use to 7. The first 7 chapters who sign up for the favors will get the job. For those who do not make favors, door prizes are needed. Consider taking the money/time/effort you would spend on the favors and make or purchase some door prizes.

We want everyone to be involved as much as possible. Perhaps you have someone in your chapter who wants to teach a session. Maybe your members have a specific technique or topic they would like taught at conference. All of these are ways to be involved.

So ladies, get ready for another wonderful conference.

Ready! Set! Go! Let us hear from you as to how you want to be involved. As always thank you for all you do for the babies and their families.

Let me know if you need anything else.
