

Sew Precious In His Sight

Volume 121 Issue 2

April 2020

GOD ALWAYS HAS A PLAN

"You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it." John 14:14

Mission Statement: Our mission is to show parents the love of Christ, especially at a time when their personal pain is hard to endure, and let them know that God is faithful. Through acts of obedience and donations, His work can and will continue. We pray that this ministry will have an impact far beyond our expectations.

Our Purpose: Threads of Love is a sewing ministry meeting the needs of newborns and tiny premature infants.

Let's take time this week to reflect on the freedoms we do have in our nation.

Have a happy Fourth of July.

And don't forget, pray for all our leaders. Even if you don't agree with them or like them, still pray for them.

1 Tim. 2:1-4 "...prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions...."

TENTATIVE CONFERENCE DATE

October 21-23

Please keep in mind, if we are still on what I call “time out”, and it is felt that it will be unsafe, the conference will be postponed until April of 2021.

NEW IDEA: I am going to choose a chapter to feature in each news letter. I would like to get picture of what you have been doing in your group. A picture of your group would be great. Maybe a few candid shots at a workshop. You will have three months notice to get it together. PLEASE, with everyone’s cooperation we can do this. So, be thinking now of how you would like to feature your group.

I was going to talk about this at the conference, but since it is postponed, who would like to volunteer for July. Don’t all jump at once. If I don’t hear from someone, I will choose you.

No one stepped up for July. So, count on me talking to you at the conference. I will have a sign up sheet for the next two years. And they go by so fast.

PLEASE: Lets make the Newsletter about celebrating you. You all deserve it.

FOR OCTOBER, MAYBE SOMEONE CAN TELL HOW THERE GROUP IS COUPING WITH THE SHELTER IN PLACE. ARE YOU SEWING? WHAT ARE YOU SEWING?

I was talking with a friend the other day.
She asked: "How are you filling your time?"
I told her I was sewing and crafting.
She asked what I would do if I ran out of supplies?
I could not stop laughing.

FYI: When you send a picture or saying to put in the newsletter, please check out any copy rights first. We had an issue that has been resolved, but don't want a repeat. So if you send something in, please let Sissy or myself know that it is okay.

Thanks so much. This will be a great help.

Way to go ladies. You are doing a great job and your rewards will be out of this world. You have touched many lives. You will probably not know who you've touched this side of Heaven, but I'm sure there will be many jewels in your crowns.

Our newest Chapters

Laura Roberts
Spring Field, Oregon

We look forward to meeting all our new ladies at the conference.

I have been reading a book by Max Lucado “Glory Days” that a friend gave me for my birthday. The book is based on Joshua . Joshua 3 was especially meaningful to me.

Joshua 3:2-4 “<sup>2</sup>After three days the officers went throughout the camp, <sup>3</sup>giving orders to the people: ‘When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests, who are Levites, carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it. <sup>4</sup>Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before.’”

I underlined the word “Then”. They didn’t know before they set out. When they started to follow, “then” they would know which way to go.

Am I the only one that wants to know where I am going when I start out.

Mike will be working on a project and I can’t see what it will look like. He is constantly telling me, you will see when it is done. I want to see it NOW. Not later. I want to know what it will look like first.

I can visualize what a pattern will look like sewn, so I’m okay with that.

As we go through these troubled times, we can trust God to lead us. We don’t see what things will look like. What will the new normal look like? But, we can trust God to lead us.
