

Sew Precious In His Sight

Volume 122 Issue 4

April 2022

GOD ALWAYS HAS A PLAN

"You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it." John 14:14

Mission Statement: Our mission is to show parents the love of Christ, especially at a time when their personal pain is hard to endure, and let them know that God is faithful. Through acts of obedience and donations, His work can and will continue. We pray that this ministry will have an impact far beyond our expectations.

Our Purpose: Threads of Love is a sewing ministry meeting the needs of newborns and tiny premature infants.

WELCOME SPRING

ATTENTION

When ordering labels, make sure you use the new form for 2022. It is on the last page of the Newsletter.

Also, there are two new videos on the website. Make sure you check them out. Click on “About Us” at the top. Then go down to videos.

WARNING: When you listen to the song “Stitches of Love” have tissue handy. You may need it.

While on the website notice there is a forum board for leaders. Click Chapter Leaders and then go to the bottom and click Leaders Dashboard. Would love to see more chapters give some ideas on here. Especially since it has been so long since we’ve met. I believe you can attach pictures. I just tried it. Not hard at all.

I’m just now starting up a new chapter. Had one just starting here before covid and just now getting back. I posted a picture of my display I had. Hubby made the stands out of jewelry stands.

Also there is a place for Testimonies. If you have one of your own, or have received one from a family please share it. Note that it will go to Sissy first and she will approve it. Testimonies will encourage others in the work they do. You don’t know when a chapter may be going through a hard time and some word from you will help them.

The best thing to hold onto in life is each other.

Congratulations to Melissa and her crew of ladies for 20 years of giving love to hurting families. None of us may ever know this side of heaven just how many lives our love has made a difference to.

A hearty welcome to our new chapters. We all look forward to meeting you in 2023 at our conference.

AIR HUGS!

By the time we meet in 2023, it will have been five years since we last met as a group. I think we will need an extra day just for hugs and catching up. I can only imagine what heaven will be like.

Until then....

I just came from a Women's Retreat. Our ladies decided to have the "retreat" at our church and not go someplace else, for the reason of the cost and the gas. We were given the opportunity to find a place of solitude and spend about a half an hour alone with God.

During my time I read Phil. 4:6-7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. <sup>7</sup>And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Sometimes we are anxious over big things and sometimes little things. I have been anxious for years about my writing. I physically have an issue with writing. I become very anxious when I am someplace and think they will ask me to write. I carry a very small laptop with me when I go to places that I think I will have to take notes. It is very frustrating to me and I am embarrassed if I do have to write (or try to) when someone is watching.

We were given a piece of paper cut out in the shape of a leaf and asked to write something on it that we needed to give to God. We were then to tape the leaf to a huge tree someone had made out of paper and take a paper blossom to replace it. At first I was just going to put a blank piece of paper on the tree. I sat there for a time and thought that if I were really going to give it to the Lord, I needed to write it. So I wrote in my very slow, jerky writing, in as few words as I could about my writing.

When I went outside to be alone. I read Philippians 4:6-7. It doesn't say to not be anxious for the big things but "anything". I looked up "anything". It is used to refer to a thing, no matter what.

It goes on to say "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus". It doesn't say the issue or situation will go away, it says that God will give you peace.

I can't say I came to a place at that time to which I am no longer anxious. But, I do have a promise from God to cling to. So now, when I feel that anxiety, I can remember this promise.

If you are feeling anxious today over "anything" I challenge you to give it to God. Memorize Philippians 4:6-7. Kick it back in Satan's face when he would try to bring you down over whatever it is. Trust God and let His peace which transcends all of our understanding guard your heart and mind.

Be anxious for nothing.
Let your requests be made known to God.
Cast your cares on the Lord. No matter what happens today, trust
God in all things.
