

Sew Precious In His Sight

Volume 127 Issue 2

January 2025

GOD ALWAYS HAS A PLAN

"You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it." John 14:14

Mission Statement: Our mission is to show parents the love of Christ, especially at a time when their personal pain is hard to endure, and let them know that God is faithful. Through acts of obedience and donations, His work can and will continue. We pray that this ministry will have an impact far beyond our expectations.

Our Purpose: Threads of Love is a sewing ministry meeting the needs of newborns and tiny premature infants.

So, just curious, how long does it take you to stop writing the old year (2024) and start writing the new year (2025)? No cheating. Sometimes it takes me days to start writing a new month. And now to write a new month and year. WOW!

I am hoping by the time I write the next newsletter I will be writing from Tennessee. I will give you all our new address then.

Trust you all had a wonderful Christmas.

MALCP

My Granny used to say, ‘In like a lion, out like a lamb.’
Or, ‘In like a lamb, out like a lion.’

Which will it be this year???

For those of you in states that do daylight savings time, don’t forget to set your clocks forward one hour. Spring forward.

Threads Of Love Ministry,

My Granddaughter was born at 31 weeks.

Our daughter had a C-section and was on medication that prevented her from holding our granddaughter. This was an emotional time for her and the entire family.

The doctors in the NICU updated us daily and the nurses would put some of the most beautiful blessings in our granddaughter's bed, such as knitted hats and hand made blankets. It would warm my heart to see that someone would put so much love into threads for special babies!

Baby Storm was discharge from the NICU after spending 51 days there. My daughter still continues to wrap her in one of the beautiful blankets that was blessed to her in the NICU.

We would like to thank each person who has placed their anointed hands on each item that covered Storm's small body.

May the love God continue to bless each of you!

This is hard to read, but it was the best I could do short of typing it out.

WARNING TO US ALL!!!

Shampoo Warning!

I don't know WHY I didn't figure this out sooner!

I use shampoo in the shower!

When I wash my hair, the shampoo runs down my whole body, and Printed very clearly on the shampoo label is this warning, "FOR EXTRA BODY AND VOLUME."

No wonder I have been gaining weight!

Well! I have gotten rid of that shampoo and I am going to start showering with Dawn dish soap instead. Its label reads, "DISSOLVES FAT THAT IS OTHERWISE DIFFICULT TO REMOVE."

Problem solved!

2024 has come to a close and we are in a new year. A new chapter. I thought this verse very fitting for a new year.

Phil. 3:12-14 “¹²Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. ¹³Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.”

Let us forget what is behind us. Don't look back with “if only”, or “I should have...”. They will rob you of the joy of today. Let's press on to new things.

Set a goal. A Spiritual goal. A personal goal. Make it something that you can look back at the end of 2025 and see where you have grown.

A question to ponder. I heard in a movie a few days ago, “Overcomer” the question asked, “Who are you?” When you hear that, what is your first response? Are you a mom, wife, seamstress...? Or is your first response “I am a child of God”. Also in the movie the main character was challenged to read Eph. 1 and 2 and to write down everything it says that you are in Christ. If you have no other goal for this year, I would challenge you to read these chapters and write down who you are. And then study each thing that it says you are.

If you take this challenge, it would be nice to hear from some of you what you have learned.

My personal challenge this year is learning about humility and surrender. Yes, they can be tough but I am up for it.

So here are a few ideas. Or, choose your own challenge. Let God speak to you and give you a challenge. But be prepare, it can be tough, but I know He will be with you every step of the way.
